

Hosteli Unigeddau'r Elenydd : Elenydd Wilderness Hostels

Walks accessing Ty'n Cornel Hostel by Public Transport No. PT1 - from Llanddewi Brefi - 7miles (11km)

It is useful to take an Ordnance Survey Map

Safety

This walk is almost entirely on a quiet road but be alert to traffic. Be aware that there is a short section of high open ground (but still on the road).

Public Transport

The bus service (no. 585) between Aberystwyth and Lampeter calls several times a day at Llanddewi Brefi on Monday to Saturday, but no service on Sundays.

Timetables can be downloaded from the internet.

Aberystwyth is served by the train service from Shrewsbury. Carmarthen is on the Cardiff line.

Copies of timetables are kept at the hostel but their currency cannot be guaranteed.

Services in Llanddewi Brefi

There is a well-stocked shop (but no longer a PO) where the bus stops. The New Inn next to the shop serves excellent food and beer. There is also the Foelallt Arms. There is a telephone box on the corner by Foelallt Arms.

Directions

NB. ref.nos. are shown on map overleaf.

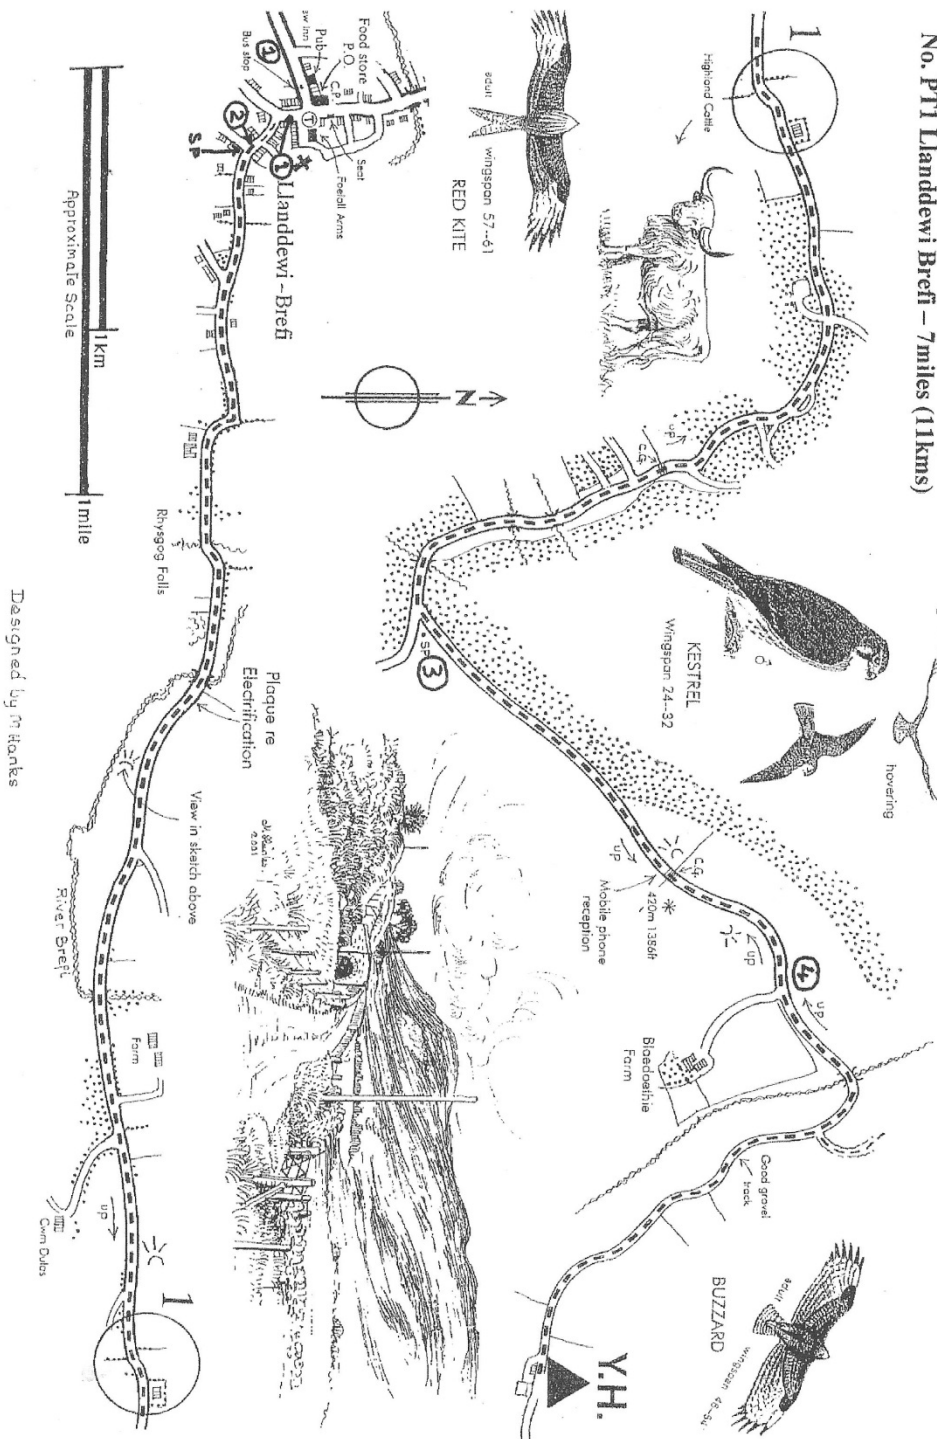

- 1 From where bus stops in front of shop, go towards telephone box and turn R with shop behind you and church on your Left (L), go ahead bearing L at fork (R is signposted to Farmers). There is a sign for the hostel here.
- 2 Ignore L turn into 'No Through Road' but bear L at next fork.
- 3 Follow this delightful road for 5 miles and fork L at first road turning. Signposted to hostel.

NB. mobile phones generally work from the cattle grid at hill top or just up-slope from it.

- 4 Go past entrance to Blaendoethie Farm and continue downhill, where road becomes a track, to hostel a mile further on.
